The Institute has decided to invite articles on the theme of the Conference and subjects relevant to the topics to be discussed in the Conference in the form of a Backgrounder. The articles must be of the highest standard and as such deal with the relevant issues, focus the problem areas and indicate alternative approaches to overcome these, if any. A comparative international position in different countries, wherever relevant, may also be preferably dealt with. The articles must be original in nature and source of reference, if any, must be indicated clearly. Selected articles will be included in the Backgrounder to be published on the historic occasion and shall be suitably rewarded.

Please send your article along with your resume latest by Feb. 16, 2004 to:
