CROSSWORD PUZZLE FOR MEMBERS DOING DISA COURSE

By Devendra Kumar Joint Secretary ICAI

ACROSS
1. A system program that allows programming in the mnemonic codes of assembly language. (9 letters)
2. A DTP software, that uses the Gem environment of drop down menus, 'icons'. (7 letters)
3. Arranging the element of error into ascending or descending numeric or alphabetic sequence. (4 letters)
4. A program that combines separately compiled object modules and object modules stored in library files to an executable program file. (6 letters)
5. Processing of inputing data. (5 letters)

DOWN
6. The interception, alteration and transmission of data so that it misleads the receiver. (8 letters)
7. To interpret a code. (6 letters)
8. A special item of data that indicates the end of the input data, and also called a data terminator. (8 letters)
9. A technology provides significant gains in processing speed as the instruction set contains only the most basic instructions, complex tasks are made up of instruction combinations. (4 letters)
10. Spreadsheet software developed by Microsoft Corporation. (5 letters)
11. A section of one track on a magnetic disk that contains a specified number of bytes. (6 letters)
12. An error or mistake in a program or hardware malfunctioning. (3 letters)
13. An acronym for integrated service digital network. (4 letters)