Explanation: The expression “reserves” occurring in column (3) against Item Nos. 1(iii), 2(iii) and 3(ii) shall not include any amount set apart for the purpose of:

(i) payment of any direct tax which, according to the balance sheet, would be payable;

(ii) meeting any depreciation admissible in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of Section 6;

(iii) payment of dividends which have been declared,

but shall include-

(a) any amount, over and above the amount referred to in clause (i) of this Explanation, set apart as specific reserve for the purpose of payment of any direct tax; and

(b) any amount set apart for meeting any depreciation in excess of the amount admissible in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of Section 6.

3.13 Available Surplus (Section 5)

According to Section 2(6), it means the available surplus Computed under Section 5. Accordingly, the available surplus in respect of any accounting year comprises of the gross profits for that year after deducting therefrom certain prior charges referred to in Section 6. Further an amount equal to the tax saved on the account of bonus in respect of the immediately preceding accounting year, should be added. It is obvious that an employer can claim the amount of bonus payable as deductible expense for the purpose of his tax assessments. Such saving must also be added to the amount of gross profits for the purpose of calculation of available surplus.

3.14 Calculation of Direct Tax Payable By The Employer (Section 7)

Any direct tax payable by the employer for any accounting year shall, subject to the following provisions, be calculated at the rates applicable to the income of the employer for that year.

In calculating the above mentioned tax, no account shall be taken on the following matters, namely:
(i) any loss incurred by the employer in respect of any previous accounting year and carried forward under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes;

(ii) any arrears of depreciation which the employer is entitled to add to the amount of the allowance for depreciation for any following accounting year or years under Section 32(2) of the Income-tax Act;

(iii) any exemption conferred on the employer under Section 84 of the Income Tax Act or of any deduction to which he is entitled under Section 101(1) of the Income-tax Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Finance Act, 1965.

Where the employer is a religious or a charitable institution to which the provisions Section 32 do not apply and the whole or any part of its income is exempt from tax under the Income Tax Act, then with respect to the income so exempted, such institution shall be treated as if it were a company in which the public are substantially interested within the meaning of that Act;

Where the employer is an Individual or a H.U.F. then the tax payable by such employer under the Income Tax Act shall be calculated on the basis that the income derived by him from the establishment is his only income;

Where the income of any employer includes any profits and gains derived from the export of any goods or merchandise and any rebate on such income is allowed under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes, then no account shall be taken of such rebate;

No account shall be taken of any rebate (other than development rebate or investment allowance or development allowance) or credit or relief or deduction (not herein before mentioned) in the payment of any direct tax allowed under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes or under the relevant annual Finance Act, for the development of any industry.

3.15 Payment of Minimum Bonus (Section 10)

Subject to the other provisions of this Act, every employer shall be bound to pay to every employee in respect of every accounting year, a minimum bonus which shall be 8.33% of the salary or wage earned by the employee during the accounting year or ₹100 (₹ 60 in case of employee below the age of 15 years), whichever is higher, whether or not the employer has any allocable surplus in the accounting year.

Even if the employer suffers losses during the accounting year he is bound to pay minimum bonus as prescribed by Section 10. This Act creates a statutory right in the employees to get minimum bonus and also creates a statutory liability upon the employers covered by the Act to pay minimum bonus. [State vs. Sardar Dalip Singh Majithia, 1979, Lab. I.C. (913) (All)].

3.16 Payment of Maximum Bonus (Section 11)

Where, in respect of any accounting year referred to in Section 10, the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employees under that section, the employer shall, in lieu of such minimum bonus, be bound to pay to every employee in respect of that accounting year bonus which shall be an amount in proportion to the salary or wage earned by the employee during the accounting year subject to a maximum of 20% of such salary or wage.

In computing the allocable surplus under the above-mentioned provision, the amount set on or the amount set off under the provisions of Section 15 shall be taken into account in accordance with the provision of that section.

3.17 Calculation of Bonus with respect to certain Employees (Section 12)

Where the salary or wage of an employee exceeds ₹3,500 per mensem, the bonus payable to such employee under Section 10 or, as the case may be, under Section 11, shall be calculated as if his salary or wage were only ₹3,500 per mensem [The Payment of Bonus (Amendment) Act, 2007 w.e.f from 1.04.2006]

3.18 Procedure for Calculation of Working Days and Proportionate Reduction in Bonus

Section 14 of the Act provides how to compute the number of working days for purposes of Section 13. Section 13 in turn prescribes a scale whereby bonus can be proportionately reduced in certain cases. Under Section 14, following days shall be deemed to be the working days of an employee and shall be counted while calculating the total working days on which he has been on work for the purpose of bonus:

(i) day when he has been laid off under an agreement or by a standing order under Industrial Employment (standing orders) Act, 1946 or Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 or any other law applicable to the establishment

(ii) he has been on leave with salary or wage.

(iii) he has been absent due to temporary disablement caused by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, and

(iv) the employee has been on maternity leave with salary or wages during the accounting year.

As per Section 13, where an employee has not worked for all the working days in an accounting year, the minimum bonus of ₹100 or, as the case may be of ₹60, if such bonus is higher than 8.33% of his salary or wage for the days he has worked in that accounting year, shall be proportionately reduced.

Suppose X is an employee with the wages of ₹80 per month. Here X is entitled to receive ₹100 as bonus for the accounting year. If however, X has worked only for half the number of the working days, there X is entitled only for half the number of working days i.e., ₹50 only as bonus.

Exceptions: 1. Both Sections 13 and 14 do not cover a case where an employee is prevented from working by reason of an illegal order of termination. If an employee by himself and on his violation does not work on all the working days in an accounting year, then the formula prescribed in Section 13 read with section 14 has to be applied. But where an employee was ready and willing to work, but for reasons beyond his control was unable to work and gain the eligibility for bonus under Section 8 of the Act, it cannot be said that Section 14 is a bar for such a claim.
2. The section 13 as to proportionate reduction in bonus shall not apply on the employee of seasonal factory. Here the word ‘working days in any accounting year’ mean those days of the year during which the employee concerned is actually allowed to work [Sakhkkar Mills Mazdoor Sangh V. Gwalior Sugar Co. Ltd.(1985) 2SCC 134]

3.19 Set On and Set Off of Allocable Surplus (Section 15)

The scheme of providing minimum and maximum bonus is based on the device of the set-on and set-off of the allocable surplus of a particular year. The amount of set-on and set-off has to be taken into account for the payment of bonus with the allocable surplus. The available allocable surplus for the relevant accounting year has to be arrived at after taking into account the figures of set-on and set-off in the previous year.

Following is the method of set-off of available surplus:

(1) Where for any accounting year, the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of maximum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under Section 11, then, the excess shall, subject to a limit of 20% of the total salary or wage of the employees employed in the establishment in that accounting year, be carried forward for being set on in the succeeding accounting year and so on up to and inclusive of the 4th accounting year. This excess is to be utilised for the purpose of payment of bonus, in the manner illustrated in the Fourth Schedule.[Section 15(1)]

(2) There may be a case where there is no available surplus or where the allocable surplus in respect of that year falls short of the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employee in the establishment under Section 10 and there is no amount or sufficient amount carried forward and set on under Section 15(1) which could be utilised for the purpose of payment of minimum bonus. In such a situation minimum amount or the deficiency as the case may be, shall be carried forward for being set off in the succeeding accounting year and so on in the manner illustrated in the Fourth Schedule. [Section 15(2)]

(3) The principle of set on and set off as illustrated in the Fourth Schedule shall apply to all other cases not covered by Sub-section (1) or (2) for the purpose of payment of bonus under this Act [Section 15(3)].

(4) Where in any accounting year any amount has been carried forward and set on or set off under this Section, then, in calculating bonus for the succeeding accounting year, the amount of set on or set off carried forward from the earliest accounting year shall first be taken into account [Section 15(4)].

3.20 The Fourth Schedule

(See Sections 15 and 16)

In this Schedule, the total amount of bonus equal to 8.33 per cent, or the annual salary or wage payable to all the employees is assumed to be ₹ 1,04,167. Accordingly, the maximum bonus to which all the employees are entitled to be paid (twenty per cent of the annual salary or wage of all the employees) would be ₹ 2,50,000.

3.21 Special Provision with Respect to Certain Establishments
(Section 16)

Where an establishment is newly set up, the employees of such an establishment shall be entitled to be paid bonus in accordance with the provisions of Sub-sections (1A), (1B) and (1C) discussed below [Sub-section (1)]. It may be noted that an establishment shall not be deemed to be newly set up merely by reason of a change in its location, management, name or ownership.

According to these Sub-sections, the liability for paying bonus in a newly set up establishment has to be judged with reference to different accounting years:

(i) The first five accounting years following the accounting year in which the employer sells the goods produced or manufactured by him or renders services, as the case may be, from such establishment [Sec16(1A)]. Bonus shall be payable only in respect of the accounting year in which the employer derives profit from such establishment. For calculation of bonus the provisions of the Act (but not Section 15) shall apply in relation to that year.

It may be noted that an employer shall not be deemed to have derived profit in any accounting year unless: (a) he has made provision for that year’s depreciation to which he is entitled under the Income Tax Act, 1961 or, as the case may be, under the agricultural Income Tax law; and (b) the arrears of such depreciation and losses incurred by him in respect of the establishment for the previous accounting years have been fully set off against his profits.

(ii) In the sixth and seventh accounting year, the provisions of Section 15 shall apply subject to the following modifications, namely: (i) for the sixth accounting year, set on or set off (as the case may be) shall be made in the manner illustrated in the Fourth Schedule, taking into account the excess or deficiency (if any, as the case may be) of the allocable surplus set on or set off in respect of the 5th and 6th accounting years; (ii) for the 7th accounting year, the same principle is to be followed but the excess or deficiency of the allocable surplus set on or set off in respect of the 5th, 6th and 7th accounting years has to be taken into account [Sub-section (1B)].

From the 8th accounting year following the accounting year in which the employer sells the goods produced or manufactured by him or renders services, as the case may be, from such establishment, the provisions of Section 15, shall apply in relation to such establishment as they apply in relation to any other establishment [Sub-section (1C)].

For the purpose of Sub-sections (1A), (1B) and (1C), sale of the goods produced or manufactured during the course of the trial running of any factory or of the prospecting stage of any mine or any oil-field shall not be taken into consideration. Where any question arises with regard to such production or manufacture, the decision of the Appropriate Government made after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of representing the case, shall be final and shall not be called in question by any Court or other authority.

3.22 Miscellaneous

A. Adjustment of customary or interim bonus against bonus payable under the Act (Section 17): (i) If in any accounting year, an employer has paid any puja bonus or other customary bonus to any employee, then the former shall be entitled to deduct the amount of bonus so paid from the amount of bonus payable by him to the employee under this Act in respect of that accounting year. The employee shall be entitled to receive only the balance.

(ii) The employer can do the same thing even in a case where he has paid a part of the bonus payable under this Act to an employee before the date on which such bonus becomes payable.

B. Deduction of certain amounts (in the case of misconduct) from bonus payable under the Act (Section 18): Where in any accounting year, an employee is found guilty of misconduct causing financial loss to the employer, then the employer can lawfully deduct the amount of loss from the amount of bonus payable by him to the employee in respect of that accounting year only. In this case, the employee shall get only the balance, if there be any.

C. Time-Limit for payment of bonus (Section 19): All amounts payable to an employee by way of bonus shall be paid by the employer within a period of 8 months from the closing of the accounting year. But this period of 8 months may be extended up to a maximum of 2 years by the appropriate Government or by any authority specified by the appropriate Government. This extension is to be granted on the application of the employer and only for sufficient reasons.

But where there is a dispute regarding the payment of bonus pending before any authority the same must be paid within a month from the date on which the award becomes enforceable or the settlement comes into operation, in respect of a dispute mentioned under Section 22.

D. Recovery of the bonus due from an employer (Section 21): It may so happen that an amount of bonus is due to an employee from his employer under a settlement or an award or agreement and it is not paid. In such a case following procedure may be followed to recover the due bonus:

(i) The employee may make an application for the recovery of the amount due to him to the appropriate Government.

(ii) The application can be made by any other person authorized by the employee in writing to act on his behalf. It can be made even by his assignee or heirs when the employee is dead.

(iii) The application is to be made within one year from the date on which the money(bonus) became due but it may be entertained even after the expiry of the said period of one year, if the appropriate Government is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making the application within the said period.

(iv) On receipt of the aforesaid application for the recovery of the bonus amount, if the appropriate Government or such authority as it may specify in this connection is satisfied that the money is so due, it shall issue a certificate for that amount to the Collector.

(v) Thereupon, Collector shall proceed to recover the same in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

According to the Explanation to Section 21, “employee” (mentioned in Sections 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25) includes a person who is entitled to the payment of bonus under this Act but, who is no longer in employment.

E. Disputes (Section 22): Disputes may arise between an employer and his employees either regarding bonus payable under this Act or regarding the application of this Act to an establishment in public sector. Such a dispute shall be deemed to be an industrial dispute within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 or any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of Industrial disputes in force in State and the provisions of that Act or as the case may be such law shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, apply accordingly.

F. Presumption about the accuracy of balance sheet and profit and loss account of corporations and companies (Section 23): (i) Authority to presume audited accounts to be accurate: During the course of that proceeding before any arbitrator or Tribunal under the Industrial Disputes Act or under any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State to which any dispute of the nature specified in section 22 has been referred, the balance sheet and the profit and loss account of an employer, being a corporation or a company (other than a banking company), duly audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, or by auditors duly qualified to act as auditors of companies under Section 226(1) of the Companies Act, 1956, are produced before it, then, the above mentioned authority may presume that those are accurate and it shall not be necessary for the corporation or the company to prove the accuracy of such statements and particulars by the filing of an affidavit or by any other mode.

(ii) Steps to find out the accuracy: where if the State is satisfied that those statements are not accurate, it may take such steps as it thinks necessary to find out the accuracy thereof.

(iii) Clarification by union: Situation may demand a clarification relating to any item in the balance sheet or the profit and loss account. In such a situation, where trade union or the employees who are a party to the dispute, may make an application to the authority requiring any clarification relating to any item in the balance sheet or profit and loss account from the employer, company or corporation. The authority shall then satisfy itself as to the necessity of such clarification., It shall direct the corporation or the company to furnish such clarification to the trade union or the employees within a specified time limit. Thereupon, the company or the corporation must comply with such direction of the authority. [Section 23(2)].

G. Audit of accounts of banking companies not be questioned (Section 24): Where any dispute of the nature specified in Section 22 between an employer, being a banking company, and its employees has been referred to the said authority under that Section and during the course of proceedings the accounts of the banking company duly audited are produced before it, the said authority shall not permit any trade union or employees to question the correctness of such accounts; But the trade union or the employees may be permitted to obtain from the banking company such information as is necessary for verifying the amount of bonus under this Act [Sub-section(1)].

These provisions shall not enable the trade union or the employees to obtain any information which the banking company is not compelled to furnish under Section 34A of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 [Sub-section (2)].

H. Audit of accounts of employers not being corporation or companies (Section 25): If the employer has any dispute relating to the payment of bonus under this Act or with respect to the applicability of this Act to an establishment in the public sector with his employees and the accounts of such employer are audited by an auditor duly qualified to act as auditor of companies under Section 141 of the Companies Act, 2013 and such accounts are produced before the authority then the provisions of Section 23 shall so far as may be, apply to the accounts so audited [Section 25(1)]

But if the authority finds that the accounts of such employer have not been audited by any such auditor duly qualified to act under Section 141 of the Companies Act, 2013 it can, if it think necessary to do so ask the employer to get his accounts audited within the stipulated time. Thereupon, the employer must get his accounts audited within the stipulated time. If the employer fails to do so, then the said authority may get the accounts audited by such auditor or auditors as it thinks fit. The accounts thus audited, whether by the employer or on his default by the authority, shall fall within the provisions of Section 23.

I. Maintenance of registers, records etc. (Section 26): Every employer shall prepare and maintain such registers, records and other documents in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Rule 4 of the Payment of Bonus Rules, 1965 prescribes three kinds of registers to be maintained by the employers, viz., (i) Register in Form A (appended to the rules) showing the computation of the allocable surplus referred to in Section 2(4); (ii) Register in Form B showing the set on and set-off of the allocable surplus (under Section 15); (iii) Register in Form C showing the details of the amount of bonus due to each of the employees, the deductions under Sections 17 and 18 and the amount actually disbursed to the employees.

J. Inspectors (Section 27): Appointment and the limit of jurisdiction: The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint such persons as he thinks fit to be Inspectors for the purposes of this Act and may define the limits within which they shall exercise jurisdiction.

Duty to produce account book, register and other document: Any person whom an Inspector calls upon to produce any account book, register or other document or to give information, shall be legally bound to do so.
Limitation of power: The provisions of Section 27 do not empower an Inspector to require a banking company to furnish or disclose any statement or information or to produce or give inspection of, any of its books of accounts or other documents, which a banking company cannot be compelled to furnish, disclose, produce or give inspection of, under Section 34A of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.

K. Penalty (Section 28): A person shall be liable to punishment: (i) if he contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rule framed thereunder; or (ii) if he fails to comply with any direction or requisition which may have been given or made to him under this Act. The punishment may be imprisonment for a term extending up to 6 months or of fine extending up to ₹1000 or both.

L. Offences by Companies (Section 29): Liabilities of persons: If an offence under this Act is committed by a Company, then every person who, at the time of committing the offence was in charge of and responsible to the company for the conduct of its business, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Exemption: Any such person who is liable for punishment, shall be exonerated from liabilities and incidental punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

Punishment where the liability is proved: where an offence has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed by a company with the consent and connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director (‘director’ in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm), manager, secretary, or other officer of the company (meaning any body corporate and including a firm or other association of individuals), such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

M. Cognizance of offences (Section 30): No Court shall take cognizance of any offence which means any act or omission made punishable by any law for the time being in force [vide Section 3(38) of the General Clauses Act] punishable under this Act, except on the:

N. Protection of an action taken under the Act (Section 31): No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall be taken against the Government or any officer of the Government for anything which is:

3.23 Special Provision with respect to Bonus Linked with Production or Productivity (Section 31A)

There may be an agreement or settlement by the employees with their employer for payment of an annual bonus linked with production or productivity in lieu of bonus based on profits, as is payable under the Payment of Bonus Act. Section 31A of the Payment of Bonus Act, inserted by the Amendment Act, 1976, allows such an agreement/settlement made either before or after the commencement of this Amendment Act, 1976. Accordingly, when such an agreement has been entered into the employees are entitled to receive bonus as per terms of the agreement/settlement, subject to the following restrictions imposed by Section 31A:

a. Agreement to relinquish minimum bonus: any such agreement/settlement whereby the employees relinquish their right to receive minimum bonus under Section 10, shall be null and void in so far as it purports to deprive the employees of the right of receiving minimum bonus.

b. Maximum bonus not exceeding 20%: if the bonus payable under such agreement exceeds 20% of the salary/wages earned by the employees during the relevant accounting year, such employees are not entitled to the excess over 20% of salary/wages.

3.24 Effect of laws and agreements inconsistent with the Act (Section 34)

Subject to the provisions of Section 31A, the provision of the Act shall have effect notwithstanding inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service.

3.25 Saving (Section 35)

3.26 Power of Exemption (Section 36)

Though the Act creates liability on the part of employer to pay the minimum bonus and confers a right to the workmen, as mentioned in Section 10, the obligation and right is subject to exemption under Section 36. The appropriate Government may, having regard to the financial position and other relevant circumstances of an establishment or class of establishment, exempt by notification in the official Gazette, such establishment or class of establishments from all or any provision of the Payment of Bonus Act. It may do so if it is of opinion that it will not be in public interest to apply all or any of the provision of this Act to such establishment or class of establishment. It may exempt such establishment or class of establishment from the application of the provision of this Act for such period as may be specified in the notification and impose such conditions as it may think fit to impose.

There are two stages in Section 36.

1. The Government shall consider the financial position and other relevant circumstances of an establishment or class of establishment.

2. It should be of the opinion that it would not be in the public interest to apply all or any of the provisions of the Act.

The expression ‘financial position’ include loss suffered by the establishment during the accounting year. The expression ‘other relevant circumstances’ will include every consideration as to whether the workmen had principally contributed to the financial loss of the company during that accounting year.

If the bonus liability is negligible compared to loss suffered, company should not be relieved of liability to pay minimum bonus.

If the losses sustained by the employer is not due to any misconduct on the part of employees, the employer is liable to pay statutory minimum bonus. [J.K. Chemicals Ltd. vs. Govt. of Maharashtra (1996) Bombay H.C].
