Press Releases

Question 12

Write Short notes on:
(a) Guidelines for drafting a Press Release
(b) The Press Communiqué

Answer

(a) Guidelines for drafting a Press Release: The term press release in its narrower sense is used for releases covering news. The press release contains worthwhile material which has some news value.

The press release should be written in a journalistic style. It should provide facts or information of interest to the readers and should attempt to cover all aspects of a specific subject. There should not be any loose ends. It should be on a subject which is recent or in news. The release should not be generally lengthy. It should be concise and to the point. It has not much place for subsidiary or background material.

The introduction or lead should be in a summary format as it is a news story.

The releases should have a consistent format. Generally, the name of the organization from where the release emanates is given on the top. The date and place are indicated on the top right side. The release should have a title and a sub-title also, if necessary. It should have a suitable introductory paragraph. In the case of releases from non-official organization, it is desirable also to mention the designation of the person issuing the release and his telephone number.

(b) The Press Communiqué: The press communiqués are issued when some important government decisions or announcements are made such as cabinet appointments, conclusion of the foreign dignitaries’ visits, international agreement, etc. The press communiqué is formal in character. It carries the name of the ministry or department and the place the date at the bottom left-hand corner of the release. Generally, the press is expected to reproduce the press communiqué without any substantial change. No heading or subheading is given on press communiqués.

Exercise
1. Define the term press release.

Answer: The term press release in its narrower sense is used for releases covering news. The press release contains worthwhile material which has some news value. It is not only unnecessary expenditure but also damages the reputation of the concerned publicity/information department if the release is on a very trivial matter.

2. Explain press notes.

Answer: Press notes are less formal in character. They are issued on important matters, e.g., raising or lowering of tariff rates, etc. The press note also carries the name of the ministry/department and the place and date at the bottom left-hand corner. Heading or sub-heading are given in press notes.
