A WORD ABOUT STUDY MATERIAL

The liberalisation and globalisation of our economic policies in tune with the global changes brought several reforms in the Corporate and Allied Laws of our country. A scheme of well-structured Corporate and Allied Laws is sine qua non for the corporate growth. These laws are being amended and fine tuned from time to time in accordance with the changes that are taking place within the country as well as outside. This process will continue to be more dynamic in times to come, vibrant for corporate growth, infusing more capital into the country and at the same time protecting and safeguarding the interests of various stakeholders. The Companies 2013 received the assent of the Hon'ble President of India on 29th August, 2013 and notified in the Official Gazette on 30th August, 2013 for public information stating that different dates may be appointed for enforcement of different provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, through notifications. The Companies Act, 2013 is rule based legislation with 470 sections and seven schedules. The entire Act has been divided into 29 chapters. Section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013 is a definition section. It provides various terminologies used in the Act. Definitional Sections or Clauses, are known as ‘internal aids to construction’ and can be of immense help in interpreting or construing the enactment or any of its parts.

Also, according to clause 95 of section 2, words and expressions used and not defined in this Act but defined in the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 or the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 or the Depositories Act, 1996 shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in those Acts.

When a word or phrase is defined as having a particular meaning in the enactment, it is that meaning alone which must be given to it while interpreting a Section of the Act unless there be anything repugnant in the context.

Section 2 states that- In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
