A. Yes, while considering the implications of Clause (6) & (7) of Part I of the First Schedule of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 in relation to such advertisements and also the need of interpersonal socialiStation/relationship of the members through such get together occasions, the advertisement for Silver, Diamond, Platinum and Centenary celebrations of the firms has been permitted to be published in any newspaper or in the newsletters.

Q. In a representation submitted to a company under section 140(4) of the Companies Act, 2013, the auditors of the company included the contribution made by the firm in strengthening the control procedures of the company during their association with the company. Is it misconduct (Case Study)?

A. Para (i) under Clause (6) of Part I of the First Schedule to the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 as appearing in the Code of Ethics, 2009, provides for scope of such representation, which an Auditor is entitled to make under section 225 (3) of the Companies Act, 1956 (Section 140(4) of Companies Act, 2013). Section 140(4) of the Companies Act, 2013 permits a retiring auditor to make a representation in writing (not exceeding a reasonable length) to the company. The proposition of the partner to highlight contributions made by the firm in strengthening the control procedures in the representation should not be included in such representation because the representation letter should not be prepared in a manner so as to seek publicity.

The Code of Ethics issued by the Institute makes it amply clear that the right to make representation does not mean that an auditor has any prescriptive right or a lien on an audit. The wording of his representation should be such that, apart from the opportunity not being abused to secure needless publicity, it does not tantamount directly or indirectly to canvassing or soliciting for his continuance as an auditor. The letter should merely set out in a dignified manner how he has been acting independently and conscientiously through the term of office and may, in addition, indicate if he so chooses his willingness to continue as auditor if re-appointed by the shareholders. Thus, such action proposed by a firm could not be approved since, it may lead to his being held guilty of professional misconduct under Clause (6) of Part I of the First Schedule to the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949.
